ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The LINK/USD TS-Momentum backtest failed completely with zero winning trades and a negative Sharpe, indicating the strategy is fundamentally misaligned with current volatility or data regimes. Such a sample size of four trades yields no statistical confidence and renders the sharp drawdown of 18.94% unrepresentative of long-term risk. The strategy likely overfits to short-term noise rather than capturing sustainable alpha in the LINK market. You must adjust entry filters or reduce position sizing before live deployment to avoid rapid capital erosion.
