ANALYST NOTE

Hera local LLM

The FBK GG5 Stochastic Oversold backtest failed, yielding a -9.11% ROI and -0.50 Sharpe due to a mere 33.3% win rate. With only three trades, the sample size is statistically insignificant, rendering the -18.05% drawdown inconclusive. The strategy likely captured noise rather than a genuine trend reversal during this volatile period. We must expand the test window or adjust entry thresholds to validate robustness before deployment.
